

2021
M.Sc.
First Semester
CORE – 04
ANTHROPOLOGY
Course Code: MANC 1.41
(Anthropology of NE India)

Total Mark: 70

Pass Mark: 28

Time: 3 hours

Answer any five questions from the following:

1. Discuss briefly on the historical development of socio-cultural anthropology in North East India. 14
2. Discuss critically on some possible factors that lead to the emergence of ethnic and identity issues in Nagaland. 14
3. Discuss in brief on the anthropometric studies carried out in Nagaland. 14
4. What is bio-cultural approach? Discuss with suitable examples on how this approach can be applied to better understand the populations of North East India. 2+12= 14
5. Write a note on what you know about the human remains recovered from the archaeological sites in Nagaland. 14
6. Briefly discuss on the subsistence pattern of the mid-Holocene populations as observed from the Mimi caves of Kiphire district Nagaland. 14
7. Write short notes on any two: 7×2=14
 - (i) Definition and concept of legends
 - (ii) Changes brought about by Christianity in Nagaland

- (iii) Molecular paradigm
 - (iv) Importance of nutritional studies
 - (v) Symbolic aspects of Naga pottery
 - (vi) Contributions of Vikuosa Nienu towards Nagaland archaeology
-