

2023
B.A./B.Sc.
Fourth Semester
GENERIC ELECTIVE – 4
GEOGRAPHY
Course Code: GGG 4.11
(Regional Geography of Northeast India & Nagaland)

Total Mark: 70

Pass Mark: 28

Time: 3 hours

Answer five questions, taking one from each unit.

UNIT-I

1. Briefly explain the physiography of Northeast India with a suitable map. 10+4=14
2. Describe the various types of soil found in Northeast India. 14

UNIT-II

3. Define age-sex composition. Elaborate on the age-sex composition of Northeast India. 2+12=14
4. What is rural-urban composition? Illustrate the rural-urban composition of Northeast India with suitable examples. 2+12=14

UNIT-III

5. What are the types of Agriculture found in Northeast India? Explain the prospects of agriculture development in the region. 5+9=14
6. What kinds of industries have scope in Northeast India? How can industries be developed in the region? 7+7=14

UNIT-IV

7. Define physiography. Briefly explain the physiographic divisions of Nagaland with a suitable map. 2+8+4=14

8. What is population growth and distribution? Explain the trend of population growth and distribution in Nagaland. 4+10=14

UNIT-V

9. Write short notes on the following: 7×2=14
(a) Potential of any two types of tourism industry in Nagaland
(b) Prospects of any two types of agriculture allied activities in Nagaland
10. Define biodiversity. Briefly elaborate on the biodiversity found in Nagaland with examples. What are the threats to biodiversity in the state? 2+8+4=14
-