

2023
B.A./B.Sc.
Fifth Semester
CORE – 12
ANTHROPOLOGY
Course Code: ANC 5.21
(Anthropology in Practice)

Total Mark: 70
Time: 3 hours

Pass Mark: 28

Answer five questions, taking one from each unit.

UNIT-I

1. What is action anthropology? Evaluate the key principles and values of action anthropology. 4+10=14
2. Write short notes on the following: 7×2=14
  - (a) Concept and nature of development
  - (b) Ethical responsibilities of applied practitioners

UNIT-II

3. Define policy. Critically examine the contributions of applied practitioners in public policy making. 4+10=14
4. Discuss on how need assessment and social impact assessment approach is utilized in planning, designing and informing development programmes, projects, and policies. 14

UNIT-III

5. Define tourism. Evaluate the relationship between anthropology and tourism in the study of human cultures and society. 4+10=14
6. Critically examine and discuss on the application of anthropological perspectives in the field of human rights citing a suitable case study. 14

UNIT-IV

7. What is applied physical anthropology? Highlight on the applied perspectives of physical anthropology in the field of ergonomics designing and sports citing examples. 4+10=14
8. Critically examine the importance of physical anthropological approach in the study of occupational health and medicine. 14

UNIT-V

9. What is cultural resource management? Explain how applied archaeological knowledge and methods are applied by anthropologists in the management of cultural resources. 4+10=14
  10. Define heritage management. Cite some important Indian legislations for heritage management framed and utilized for the conservation of historical monuments and sites with suitable examples. 4+10=14
-